MAN KILLED IN UP RIVER R.R. WRECK

Quite a serious railroad wreck occurred at 6:30 last night at Basco station, a mile south of Millsboro, on the Monongahela Division of the P. R. R. The passenger train was moving north at a resonable speed when a broken wheel suddenly disabled the engine and caused it to overturn, and so quickly did it happen that fireman W. D. Davis was caught under the engine and instantly killed and the engineer, Wm. Lopp was badly injured in jumping to safety.

The wrecked engine and the baggage car caught fire and the crew of the steamer Greendale in passing that point seeing the accident ran into shore, threw out their hose and soon extinguished the flames. No passengers on the train were hurt, but all were badly scared and shaken up. Aside from the broken wheel it is said there was a bad washout at that point, to which the accident is partially atributable.

Fireman Davis was 32 years old, resided at Dravosburg and leaves a wife and two children. Engineer Lopp lived at Pittsburgh.

Monessen Man Wants Divorce

Abraham Schtalo of Monessen on Monday, in the prothonotary's office in the Greensburg court filed papers asking a divorce from his wife, Elsie Schtalo. The couple, so say the papers, were married November 10, 1892, and the allegation is that the woman left or deserted Abraham about two years ago without, as he states, any cause or justifiable provocation.

ANXIOUSLY LOOKING TOWARD FIELD MEET

Yesterday afternoon at a special called meeting of the members of the Monessen High School Athletic Association, plans were gone over for the approaching field and track meet of the high schools of the upper Monongahela valley. It is thought upon good authority that there will be four schools entered in the meet this year, namely: Monongahela, Charleroi, Donora and Monessen. It is understood that there is better material than ever before in all the afore-mentioned schools and some records are sure to go by the board in the coming meet which will probably be held at Charleroi.

Rewards for first and second places will probably be made in the form of gold and silver medals, and a banner or pennant to the championship team. J. B. Ogden will coach the boys and work will start as soon as the weather permits. Captain Voyle Manown is very enthusiastic over the outlook and says that there are a few surprises in store for some of the other teams

It is probable that a team will be sent to Washington, Pa., to compete in the W. & J. meet and one also sent to Pittsburgh to take part in the meet to be held there under the auspices of the University of Pittsburgh.

PLANS ARE RIPENING FOR COMING BOXING CONTEST

Plans are fast coming under way for the boxing bout to be held in the opera house on the night of Monday, April 15. A permit will be issued in a few days according to advices from the Executive offices of the Borough and all arrangements will be completed in a short time.

There will be three bouts on the card. "Swats" Adamson and "Red" Robinson, Eddie Wimler and Joe Ketchel, and Al Grayber is trying to get "Mutts" Dietz of Charlreoit to match up with him. This last bout if pulled off, should prove a corker as Dietz is a nifty scrapper and sure to put up a game fight. All-in-all the show promises to be one of the best held here in some time and the ring followers are already beginning to sit up and take notice.

INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL MEN OF THIS DISTRICT TO ENDORSE WM. H. TAFT

Not only in Monessen is the Taft sentiment becoming stronger every day, but throughout the entire Pittsburgh district people are becoming sensitive to the importance of the great issues facing them at this time The passage of the obnoxious Underwood tariff schedule by the insurgent congress has aroused those interested in our great institutions to the dire importance of protecting the country against the oncoming of depressed business conditions. Every business man and every man who has a position at a living wage should become interested in electing delegates to the national convention who will vote for the nomination of a candidate for President who will view the tariff situation consistent with the principles of the Republican party under which the country has developed and prospered. Commercial and industrial interests in the entire Pittsburgh district have become aroused to the importance of rallying to the support of William H. Taft, and to that end the following notice has been sent out.

Pittsburgh, March 12.—A committee of nearly 100 of the leading business men, working and professional men in the Pittsburgh district has called a meeting in the Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburgh, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to indorse the renomination of President Taft and to urge upon the Republican party the claims of the vast Pittsburgh district for better business conditions B F. Jones, Jr., president of the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, is to be chairman of the meeting Hundreds of merchants contractors, workingmen, lawyers, railroad men, glassworkers, steel men and manufacturers of all kinds have signified their intention of being present at the meeting These men will be put down as vice presidents and their names will be announced at the meeting Mr B F Jones, Jr., says the Taft sentiment in the Pittsburgh district is overwhelming

The call to the meeting and the signers of it follow:

"You are invited to attend a meeting of manufacturers, business men, professional men and workmen interested in the policies and welfare of the Republican party and in the renomination of President Taft, to be held in the Fort Pitt hotel next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock

"This meeting is open to all Republicans who have the material and permanent interest of the great Pittsburgh district and the nation at heart

"The purposes of the meeting are to inspire the Republican party in first securing and then assuring the uninterrupted continuance of the prosperity of the country and to give a vote of confidence in the president of the United States in his laudable ambition to serve a second term, to which we believe he is entitled by reason of his fidelity to the principles of his party and his proven ability to discharge the duties of the office

"Not a full dress affair, but a conference of practical workers."

SPRING START AT THE PEOPLES STORE

The spring season, 1912, started Saturday evening at the Peoples Store, Donner avenue, and the attendance was most gratifying to Manager Welber, and the business done was far beyond his most liberal anticipation. This is just a beginning, in a way, as the new spring stock is not nearly all in yet. New goods are arriving daily and the entire force is busily engaged in unpacking, marking and arranging the new showings. In two or three weeks everything will be in apple pie order for a formal grand opening which is being planned by Mr. Welber, when something very special will be "handed" the people of Monessen in the finest arranged display of spring apparel for ladies and gentlemen ever seen in Monessen, as well as appropriate souvenirs. This will, be an event worthy the presence of everyone, and all should make arrangements to attend. Manager Welber will welcome any one any time, and even now has on hand a new line of spring goods surpassing many other stores when the season is at its zenith.

MAN BLOWN TO PIECES BY EXPLOSIVES HE CARRIED

When he quit work Monday evening at the No. 2 mine of the Atlantic Crushed Coke Company near New Derry, this county, John Gaddis, aged 35, put his electric batteries and explosives, used in blasting, in a bag and swung it over his shoulder. The batteries, jarring together, short-circuited and a spark ignited the explosive. Gaddis' remains were gathered together and were buried yesterday. He leaves a widow and three children.

The expense of the supper will be only 25 cents and a most cordial invitation is extended to every person. 36-6t

RESTAURANT MEN ASSAULT A HUCKSTER

There was lively doin's at the Luna restaurant on Donner avenue yesterday afternoon for a little while. It seems that Samuel Tenebaum, age 21, the driver for Zeidman Bros., the Charleroi hucksters entered the restaurant to collect a bill of $3.40 due him for potatoes, and when he presented his bill Proprietor Popinta is said to have become insolent and even furiously mad, disputing the bill, and calling two waiters to his assistance they proceeded to abuse young Tenebaum most disgracefully. It is further stated that after "beating him up" they ejected him into the back alley at the rear of the store, not neglecting to place in his pocket the three-forty. However Mr. Popinto was later rounded up and "haled into court" before our worthy burgess Daniel Reamer who, after hearing the facts in the case placed a fine on the restaurant man which, along with costs amounted to $36.55.

Large Crowd at Revival

In spite of the inclement weather of last evening a large crowd was in attendance at the Evangelistic services being held in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Houck delivered a very forceful sermon that was appreciated by the many hearers and at the close of the service seven people professed a desire to lead a life with God as a partner.

In his sermon last evening Rev. Houck brought out the fact very clearly that now is the time to profess faith and not to keep putting it off from time to time. "There is no telling what may happen between now and the next chance one has to become a christian and it is better by far to be on the safe side and take Him into partnership at once."

Tomorrow's prayer meeting services will be conducted at the following homes: Mrs. F A. Cummins, 488 McKee avenue, Mrs. John Brightwell, Oneida and McKee and Mrs. John Manown, 100 Schoonmaker. Services tonight in the church at the usual hour and every one is invited to attend.

A Questionable Measure

Good, staunch and true Republicans are saying and doing all in their power to frustrate the final making into law the much talked of Underwood tariff reduction bill, just now being boosted by the Democratic leaders at Washington, and it is earnestly hoped by all right thinking people of this great industrial land that our vast interests may not be crippled and wages of the mechanic and laborer brought down lower than at present.

For the prosperity of our country commercially, this bill is much to be feared should it become a law, and should the Democrats and so-called "Progressive Republicans" unitedly muster enough strength to bring it up to President Taft the only hope is that he will knock it out by his veto, and every assurance is held out that he will do so.

The Underwood bill reduces the average protective duty on iron and steel products ranging from 40 to 60 per cent, and when such men as I. M. Scott, president of LaBelle mills, B. F. Jones, of Jones and Laughlin and John A. Topping of the Republic Iron and Steel Co., declare that the bill would, if made a law, cripple the iron and steel industry, lower earnings and force both dividend and wage reductions, there surely must be truth in it.

To go deeper, and more specifically into the intricacies of the subject, we feel safe in asserting that our markets on the Gulf ports and the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards from Portland Maine, to Portland, Oregon, and for an average distance 100 miles inland, would be open to the invasion of the foreign manufacturer and in addition they could go up the St. Lawrence River through the Great Lakes as far as Duluth; also they could ascend the Mississippi river to St. Louis or even to St. Paul on equal if not better terms. Thus one can see the tremendous effects upon the American manufacturer of handing over to the foreigners all the advantages in trade and competition.

If this emergency is forced upon the American manufacturers there is only one way they can live, and that is by forcing the labor employed in manufacturing, mining and transportation to the low wages paid in the foreign countries. For these reasons we most earnestly protest against the provisions of the Underwood tariff bill placing the products above mentioned on the free list, not only on behalf of our manufacturers but also on behalf of our splendid body of intelligent workmen who have a right to live according to American standards of life, and whose conditions we desire to improve rather than degrade.

Hence we reiterate that there is just one power that will, in case the bill passes both houses, prevent it becoming operative and that is the veto at the hands of President Wm. H. Taft.

Iceland's Minerals.

Besides gold and copper, silver has also been discovered in Iceland by a French engineer. The mines are situated in the mountain of Ingolfsfjall, in the environs of Oelfus, South Iceland. The mountain belongs to some farmers, and an engineer, on behalf of a French company, has purchased the right of digging. English companies have now rented certain Icelandic districts where gold mines were discovered.

Proposal On a Fan

Lisette's grandfather was taking her back to Honolulu, after she had finished her course in a fashionable San Francisco boarding school. Lisette had been an apt pupil in conforming with American fashions. Her grandfather hoped devotedly the first time he saw his transformed little Honolulu lady that she had derived as much from the text-books as evidently she had imbibed from the style journals.

Jimmie spied Lisette as soon as the steamer left port. Anxious to become acquainted with her, he followed the couple on deck.

"We are especially fortunate," the old gentleman was saying. "Never have I been on a smoother sailing vessel. You wouldn't know we were moving. The waves aren't even nervous."

"Pardon me," broke in Jimmy. "We haven't started yet."

His inimitable smile must have been contagious for Lisette smiled back at him with the most beautiful smile that commenced in her great candid eyes and ri pled all over her face. From that minute Jimmy was her devoted admirer.

Everyone called the lad "Jimmy," old and young were soon under the fascination of the big fellow with the round, over-grown baby face

"Jimmy shadows that pretty little Honolulu girl all over the deck," said the captain's wife.

"Yes, and that old grandfather shadows them both. Just as soon as he's comfortably seated in his steamer chair, engrossed in some novel, he spies his granddaughter with Jimmy, and he's off after them."

"Jimmy came from the same town as we do," continued the captain's wife, and through some influence secured the appointment of paymaster in the navy; that smile must have been a birthday present to him, as I've rarely seen him without it except when he scowls resentfully at Lisette's grandfather."

Each day ripened the friendship between Jimmy and Lisette The old man was nearly frantic; he grew thin and wore an habitual strained, worried look, afraid to leave them out of his sight for a moment, he could be seen hobbling up and down the deck all day long.

The time drew near when Lisette was to land. All smiles had left their faces. Jimmie was to go on and to go on meant a separation for months

They bade each other good-by, but not a word of love or endearment had escaped Jimmie's lips.

"I'd rather die," he said to himself, "than ask a girl to starve on my income. If ever I'm promoted, then me for Honolulu."

"Please forward my fan," wrote Lisette to the captain's wife, "and have some friends on board write their names on it as a memento of the glorious days on the ship."

"What are you doing?" asked Jimmie as he noticed a young man scrawling his name on a fan covered with hieroglyphics.

"He's writing his name on your charming Honolulu friend's fan," explained a young woman standing nearby. "You're the next on the list. Last the best of all."

"Give it to me; I'll send it to her," said Jimmie, raging with jealousy.

When the fan was in his possession he scratched out all the names and in the small space left, wrote:

"Darling, what do you want with all those names when you can have mine for keeps? Received notice of my promotion this morning.—Jimmie Horton."

Jimmie was again his smiling self when he received a message from Lisette saying: "I'd rather have your name than any other under the sun. Grandfather is furious."

Rattlesnakes That Swim.

There is one curious thing that the O. C. has noticed on the Winnipiseogess islands—the smaller islands—which are situated say a mile or so from the mainland—the presence of mice and once in a while a rat. Now, the question is, how do these pests get from the mainland to the islands. Swim? One old cottager says that he has a theory that perhaps the parent rates, or mice, come in luggage, like packing boxes, that convey the goods of settlers on the islands Still, it is possible that they swim from the mainland. The O. C. once told the story that rattlesnakes now and then swam from Rattlesnake island to the mainland shore. Nearly everybody has laughed at the editor for making that statement. Well, if you don't believe it, ask Professor Thxng, the teacher of drawing in the Manchester public schools, who owns a piece of land on the Gilford shore, or did own a lot there He will tell you that rattlesnakes swimming across the lake are not a myth by any means.—Manchester Union.

Profusion of Butterflies.

A curious phenomenon, attributed to the abnormally hot summer, is being observed at Rouen, France, in the form of an invasion of butterflies. At night wonderful scenes are witnessed when the beautiful insects, of all sizes and colors, swarm in thousands round two powerful arc lamps which light the square near the Pont Corneile. The air in the vicinity of the square is so thick with butterflies that from a distance the spectacle resembles a heavy snowstorm.

Facts And Fiction

Experiences of Monessen Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Monessen is true. Read it and compare evidence from Monessen people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Monessen will endorse Doan'o Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, 452 McKee avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I think that the change of drinking water when I moved here was the cause of my kidney trouble. The kidney secretions became irregular in passage and caused me annoyance. I was subject to dizzy spells, could not sleep well and was very nervous. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from the Hirsch Drug Co. and commenced their use. They have greatly helped me and have lived up to all the claims made for them."

MAN LOST AMBITION

It seemed strange to so active and energetic a young man as Arthur H. Scott of Brooklyn that he did not attack his work with the usual enthusiasm last spring.

He knew it was not "spring fever" for his health failed and, to use his own words in a recent letter, "I could not sleep, had no energy or ambition and could not do my work properly.

"I must say that Vinol has done me wonderful good for I feel strong and ambitious again, just like I used to before my health failed. I rest well at night, have a good appetite and no more nervousness, all because I took your excellent tonic, Vinol."

One reason Mr. Scott was willing to try Vinol was because he knew he could get his money back if Vinol did not benefit him. This delicious cod liver and iron remedy without oil, positively has no equal as a spring medicine, to enrich the blood and make weak, worn-out men, women and children, rugged, rosy and strong. We guarantee it to do this, and give back your money if it does not. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen, Pa.

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. Guiseppa Devido, aged 78 years, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock after a short illness at the home of her son on Donner avenue. The cause of death is given as old age, the deceased being almost an octogenarian. She was well known among her own country people here and was respected by all who knew her. Besides a son she is survived by two daughters here, Mrs. Joseph Minardi and Mrs. Patsy Minardi and three other children, one of whom is in the old country. Six brothers also survive, who are in the old country. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at St. Leonard church and interment will be made in Grandview cemetery.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Thomas Gibbons, aged 57 years, mother of Mrs. A. W. Datz, at her home 1937 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, at an early hour this morning. Details are lacking as we go to press, but information as to funeral services will be given in tomorrow's issue.

Monessen May be in League

J. H. Laing, treasurer of the Uniontown Basket Ball Association is reported as having said yesterday, after the closing of the season at Uniontown, that the Central League would be organized for the next season next fall, and that the circuit will, in all probability be composed of Uniontown, Johnstown, Connellsville and Charleroi of this year's circuit, with the probable admission of Fairmont, Clarksburg, Monessen and Washington.

LUNCH CHILDREN WILL LIKE

How Midday Meal Should Be Packed to Be Kept Warm and Appetizing.

Mothers living too far from the schoolhouse for the children to come home to lunch will find this a solution of the cold lunch problem: Use a box about 15 inches square, inside measurement; pack a three-inch layer of excelsior very solidly in the bottom, then put a tin or agate pail having a very tight cover on this. Pack excelsior solidly around this to the top of the pail. It is very important to have it solid, as the pail must be taken out. A cover must be made to fit the box and this, too, covered for three inches or enough to reach the pail with the excelsior, held in place with cheesecloth or other light fabric tacked securely over it. For the box make a cover of linen or dark canvas. This cover should extend all over the box and hook on side. For the lunch boil in the pail rice, beans, soup, or whatever you may choose that can be boiled. When nearly done, cover closely and put at once in the box; put the cover on the box and it is ready and will be done and hot when the children are ready for it, hours later. Of course, if a tin pail is used, nothing containing tomatoes should be chosen. This will be found of especial convenience to mothers living in the country, where children drive to school.

Calisthenics.

"Those Latin races use a great many gestures when they talk." "Yes," replied the busy man; "and it's a mighty good idea. It enables you to take your physical culture right along with your ordinary exercise."

DISGRACEFUL COCK FIGHT IN OLD BARN

"Brownsville, March 13—One of the hardest "cock fights" ever pulled off in Fayette county occurred early Sunday morning in an old barn located on the National pike near the residence of W. C. Higinbotham. Over 200 sports, most of them from Pittsburgh, McKeesport, Charleroi, Monongahela, Monessen, Belle Vernon and Fayette City, gathered at the scene of the fight about midnight and soon the various events, seven in number, were under way. The battle was one between birds owned by local enthusiasts and sports from Pittsburgh, in which the local aggregation came out second best.

Over $4,000 is said to have changed hands as a result of the main, the Pittsburghers backing their birds heavily and the local sports readily covering all bets. Six of the local birds were killed while one of the Pittsburgh fighters was so badly battered that it was killed. The main lasted until near daybreak and stragglers were still coming in from the scene of the fight late Sunday morning. The birds were brought here and the ones belonging to the Pittsburgh aggregation will be shipped to that city early in the morning."

The above special appeared in a Monday's Uniontown paper, and we are led to wonder where the minions of the law of which old Fayette makes such boast, could have been. Surely they were not "on their job" or they would not have permitted such a disgraceful and unlawful event to have been pulled off right in the midst of a civil an law respecting community. Even yet we would not be surprised to hear of the Fayette county court ordering and investigation and follow up by the arrest of all parties implicated. This should be done, and an example set against this shameful, disgraceful and inhuman sport, which is not allowed by he laws of Pennsylvania.

Greensburg's New Federal Building

Tuesday evening Greensburg's fine new post office on South Pennsylvania avenue was thrown open to the public for inspection and during the formal reception hour, 7 until 9:30, the new home of Postmaster Lyon was thronged with a representative delegation of Greensburg folk and from surrounding neighborhood which taxed even its enlarged area beyond its capability. In other words the place was crowded and packed with people who were anxious to inspect their new government building which for more than a year has been their hope and is today their pride and joy.

Greensburg's handsome and commodious post office home cost $125,000 and was just about one year in building, the start having been made March 16, 1911.

Everything in readiness it is thought the move of the office in toto will be made from the old office on Main street this Wednesday evening.

Among the Theatres

OLYMPIC

Four excellent reels are being offered today at the Olympic theater and one of the best entertainments that has been offered here for sometime is on the bill. "The Final Pardon," a picture that is sure to please everyone and tells a story of the love that exists between a mother, father and son. "An Assisted Elopement" is a picture that is a novelty that catches at once. The story of how a rival unwittingly assists in the elopment of the girl whom he wishes to marry himself. The next two reels show one of the finest pictures obtainable. "The Trust," a big grafting story of a large sum of money. $50,000.00 is involved in the action of the plot and a thrilling story of top notch interest all of the time is the result. 1t

TOMORROW AT THE OLYMPIC

"BLIGHTED LIVES"

A story in which a man's conscience plays an important part. Something that is different and you should not fail to see this picture of how two lives are blighted.

"THE ARAB'S BRIDE"

A story of the Moors, and this picture can only be appreciated after having been seen. Watch for these features tomorrow and a big vaudeville attraction on Friday and Saturday. 1t

THE BIJOU

As an extra special feature today the offering at the Bijou is "The Diamond S. Ranch," one of the finest pictures of this kind that has ever been produced In this pretentious production there are over 300 cow boys and 2,500 cattle. The branding, lassoing and other opperations are all faithfully depicted in this picture. Other good pictures also including "The Ordeal" a strong drama by the Pathe Co., that is exceptionally good. Hear our fine orchestra playing all the latest popular airs. 1t

THE LUNA

Two extraordinary features are being shown today at the Luna. "A String of Pearls" and "Trapped by Wireless." Both pictures are away out of the ordinary and should draw big crowds all day. The first is a beautiful story, an explanation as to what constitutes the real pearls of life and the second is a thrilling drama that has its climax while an ocean liner is battling bravely in mid-ocean with the raging storm. Special music for both pictures by our own special orchestra. 1t

William Dement is a visitor in McKeesport this afternoon.

News Notes of Society

The ladies of the United Presbyterian church Monday night tendered a surprise and farewell reception in honor of Mrs. G. A. Gardner at the home of Mrs. George Pawney, 472 McKee avenue, there being about thirty guests present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs Gardner who, with her husband is to make her future home at Cleveland, O., was presented a most beautiful piece of hand needle work as a mark of friendship, which was much appreciated by the recipient. At 11 o'clock a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Gardner was the church organist while here and it is with much regret that her church and social ties are severed in Monessen, but every good wish accompanies her and hers for prosperity and happiness in their new home.

On next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Nash, 688 McKee avenue, there will be a meeting of the children enrolled in the cradle roll department of the Baptist church, and their mothers. A special program has been arranged for and every mother is requested to be present who has a child enrolled. Any mothers and their children who are not affiliated with any church will be welcome at this meeting and a cordial invitation is extended to all those. The meeting will be under the charge of the Mesdames Nash and Jones and it is their wish to meet all of the members.

The sixth in the series of winter dances being given by the Monessen Club will be given this evening in Kelly's hall, and a goodly attendance of members is anticipated. Music will be furnished by the Reiner orchestra.

"EIGHTS" ARE THEIR HOODOOS

Postal Clerks Say Stamps of That Denomination Cause Them Much Financial Loss.

When a meek little man stepped up to the stamp window in a branch office and asked for an eight cent stamp he caused as much consternation as if he had demanded "your money or your life"

All the clerks came to the window to take a look at him. They muttered to one another and made strange and fantastic signs, crossed their fingers, knocked on wood and did various other things that are supposed to drive away evil spirits.

"We're just out of eight cent stamps," a clerk finally stammered. "Got lots of two and ones."

"Well, gimme a five and a three," said the meek little man, upon receiving which he paid for them and departed

"What's the matter with the eights?" queried an inquisitive spectator.

The stamp clerk was still too nervous to answer, but one of the others said, with a smile:

"Eights are hoodoos. None of the small offices handle them if they can help it. It's this way: They are just a wee shade different in color from the ones and it is no infrequent thing for a stamp clerk in a hurry to hand out a lot of eights when ones are asked and paid for. It always costs him seven cents a stamp when he does it. The clerk here the other day, during the rush hour, when the offices are closing, was called upon for a dollar's worth of ones. He handed out a hundred eights instead. Cost him seven dollars. Then he got rid of all the rest of the eights and now he won't have anything to do with eights. Even says 'eaten' instead of 'ate.'"

ODD WAYS OF THE COMMONS

Illustrated by the Imminent Peril of Mr. Pearce, Who Read Newspaper During Session.

A member of the British parliament remarks in London Opinion that the rules of the house of commons are past all understanding, and then proceeds to cite the case of Mr. Pearce, M. P, and the imminent danger in which he one day appeared to be. This was when the sergeant-at-arms, with his terrible sword in hand, rose from his chair and rushed with cyclonic speed in the direction of the mild, meek and altogether unconscious-of-offense member. It was quickly made clear what was the cause of this hasty saber charge by the sergeant Mr. Pearce had actually been reading a newspaper, and there is no more heinous offense known to parliament. The members when in the chamber are not permitted to read newspapers for any purpose not immediately connected with the debate actually in progress, though one may succeed in doing it surreptitiously by folding the newspaper small and concealing it behind the order paper of the day, much like a boy may nibble at an apple in school, concealing the pippin behind his spelling book. Yet more gross breaches of parliamentary etiquette and decorum may be seen, members even wearing their hats when a fellow member is addressing the house, and even the dearest friends of an orator may go to sleep while he is delivering his choicest periods.

Japanese Fruit Trees.

Among the many ways of their own that the Japanese have for doing is their system of pruning and training fruit trees The system is called "tana," and consists in training the branches overhead on trellis work made of bamboo or wire supported on wooden posts about five and a half feet high.

This offers advantages in gathering the fruit, and not only serves to protect the trees against wind and storms, but is said to increase production. Only very light pruning is done, and that usually in the wintertime. This system is generally adopted for pears and vines, less often for apples and plums.—Youth's Companion.

Life of the Grapevine.

There are some who contend that the life of the grapevine is longer than that of the oak. It is rare that a wild grapevine is found that has died of old age Pliny mentions a vine 600 years old. There is a vine at Hampton Court, England, planted in 1769, while here in America there is a wild grapevine on the shores of Mobile Bay, within a mile of Daphne Ala commonly known as the "General Jackson" vine, more than 6 feet in circumference at its base. There is a grapevine in Carpenteria, Cal, under which more than eight hundred persons may stand Its trunk is eight feet in diameter at the base and it has borne as high as ten tons of fruit It is said that this vine was planted in 1842.

Good Mental Tonic.

As appearance means so much to the average woman, mentally as well as socially, the question often arises, "Is she justified in aiding or improving nature if she sees fit?" Many of our well-known medical men think that "make-up" is as good a mental tonic as anyone can take and greatly advise its use, especially for the girl who has some slight personal defect—a scar, a poor complexion or bloodless lips, for the knowledge of her defects makes her shy and oftentimes sulky and miserable.
